

ULUNDA N. BAKER

Speaker, Author, Business Leader,
Consultant and Overcomer

From hopeless to promoting hope, Ulunda uses her life story as a generational chain breaker and overcomer to help equip and empower others to overcome adversity.

A leader in life, community, education, and business, Ulunda was recently voted one of Charlotte Media Group's 2021 50 Most Dynamic Women in the Charlotte, NC Region.

Ulunda is a senior director in corporate America, CEO/Co-founder of Serve Unity Outreach, Inc., a 501c3 non-profit focused on bringing the community together to serve in schools, poverty, and homelessness. She also serves on the Community Shelter of Union County and Arborbrook Christian Academy's Board of Directors. Ulunda has a heart for people, the community, and education.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

✓ CROWNED AND CAPABLE

Winning in life is a mindset. It's not waiting for one big moment to happen. The moment for you happened the day you were born. From your first breath to now, you have been crowned to rise and are capable of owning it. Let's shift our mindset and claim who we already are!

✓ FAT, BLACK, AND UNEDUCATED: How I Turned Barriers into a Staircase to the Top in Corporate America

We all face barriers in our career and life journey that could easily make us want to give up on our goals. The choice is always ours to flip the script on what should be defeated and make our way to victory.

✓ TEACHING PEOPLE TO SERVE: Community Service changed my life and now I'm teaching others how to help change their communities through the power of service

From hopelessness to hope, Ulunda shares her life story and how service from others paved the way for her to overcome. Now she's using it to empower, inspire and uplift communities.
